

Why Minnesota Representatives Are Traitors To Their People

Written by RON BRANSTNER on April 8, 2019

Most of you are aware of the house file that passed the floor this past week in Minnesota. H.F. 1500 passed the House overwhelmingly in support of giving illegals driver's license on Minnesota roads. Many of you may not be aware that passing the House file could be viewed as an act of treason. Federal law clearly addresses its position on those who are here in the country illegally.

We should address the first act of treason by your representatives when supporting or writing legislation to aid and abet the undocumented illegals present in the United States.

Bringing in and harboring certain aliens is part of US code (8 U.S.C. § 1324). This statute is aimed at an individual who “knowing that a person is an alien, brings to or attempts to bring to the United States in any manner whatsoever such person at a place other than a designated port of entry.”

The statute is also aimed at the person who “knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that an alien has come to, entered, or remains in the United States in violation of law, transports, or moves or attempts to transport or move such alien within the United States by means of transportation or otherwise, in furtherance of such violation of law”; or with the same knowledge “conceals, harbors, or shields from detection” such an alien; or “encourages or induces an alien to come to, enter, or reside in the United States, knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that such coming to, entry, or residence is or will be in violation of law.”
