

WE BELIEVE THAT...

- Every person deserves to be valued, feel safe, cared for, and supported with compassion and respect.
- Every individual has skills and talents that make them uniquely equipped to contribute as a responsible citizen.
- Every person is responsible for their own choices.
- Education provides the greatest access to opportunities.
- Engagement in lifelong learning begins at birth.
- Communication, critical thinking, collaboration, creativity, and adaptability are necessary to thrive in a changing world.
- Honesty and integrity are essential to all positive relationships.
- Success can come from working through adversity.
- Learning occurs best when social, emotional, physical and mental health needs are met.
- Collaboration with families and(/or) caregivers is crucial to a learner's development.
- Involvement in meaningful activities enriches life.
- Strong communities and schools support each other.
