

A LESSON WE NEED TO BRING BACK

It is not a choice to fight Evil, it will either kill you now or kill you later, but it will kill you.

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without blood-shed; if you will not fight for what's right when victory is sure, you may come to the moment you will have with all odds against you with little chance of survival and worst case you may have to fight when there is no hope of victory because it is better to perish than to live as slaves.

This is a statement made by Winston Churchill

We are here the Rubicon is close to being crossed.
